- b) Stating that the subject may address the Committee at a meeting to be held not earlier than fourteen and not later than twenty eight days after service of the notice;

- d) The sanction does not take effect:
 - i) Until the expiration of the period within which the subject is entitled to appeal against the decision concerned; or
 - ii) If within that period the subject exercises the right of appeal, unless and until the decision is confirmed under Regulation 3.5, whichever is the latter.

- d) When imposing any sanction, it will be accompanied by a warning that a similar breach by that subject in the future may result in the imposition of a more serious sanction.

3.5 APPEAL

- a) A subject may appeal to the LANSW against a decision of the Committee, but must do so no later than fourteen (14) days after notice of the decision is served on the subject, by lodging with the Secretary a written notice to that effect.
